He looked indeed at the thought of losing his father a service, and finished out his friend for away with a light step.

There is power in kindness. And the calm as he sat musing, after the lad's departure. And even while, he sat musing, over the incident the boy came back with a cheerful, happy face, and said,

"Can I do anything else for you, father?"

Yes, there is power in kindness. Unbridled passion can only subdue, constrain, and break; but in love and gentleness there is the power of the summer rain, the dew and the sunshine.

MONDAY, MAY 17, 1852.

☞ The important measure of giving to every one a homestead has passed the house of Representatives in Congress, but has yet to pass the Senate before it becomes a law. There are those, who think that it will not pass the Senate, and yet there are several strong reasons for believing that it may be approved of by the Senate and thus secure to the landless the right to a home and the ownership of land, whether the person be a native or a foreigner.

The bill as passed the House provides "that any person who is the head of a family, and a citizen of the United States, shall be entitled to enter, free of cost, one quarter section of vacant and unappropriated public lands, or a quantity equal thereto, to be located in a body, in conformity with the legal subdivisions of the public lands, and after the same shall have been surveyed. To be entitled to make such entry, a person must make an affidavit that he or she is the head of a family, and is not the owner of any estate in land at the time of such application, and has not disposed of any estate in land to obtain the benefit of the act. Land is thus acquired are not to be liable for any debts contracted prior to the issuing of the patent therefor. If at any time after filing the affidavit required, and before the expiration of five years, the person locating such lands shall change his or her residence or abandoned the said entry for more than six months at one time, then the land shall revert to the government. Any foreigner, now a resident in the U. S but not a citizen, may avail him or herself of the benefit of this act, by filing his or her intention to become naturalized, though the patent shall not be issued until he or she has become a citizen agreeable to the naturalization laws of the U. S.—No person shall make more than one entry.

Legislative Papers.

The people of the State of Maine have been furnished during the session of the legislature with two excellent Thrice-Weekly papers giving a very full and accurate account of the proceedings of the legislature, and reports of the most important debates. This has been a great convenience to the public, and especially so to the Press, which we most readily and cheerfully acknowledge.

The outlay in this enterprize on the part of the enterprising publishers of the Kennebec Journal has not, we regret to learn, yielded them any profit. This ought not so to be. The Kennebec Journal performs too many good deeds to the public, and to the whigs of the State, and requires too much outlay of money and brains, of muscle and lamp oil, of goose quills and paper, not to afford a suitable remuneration.—Such a paper should certainly be published and paid for, and it is the duty of the whigs in the State to give it a generous support for unlike the publishers of the Age, our friends at the Journal gets no fat jobs from the State. The whigs of Maine should consider it both a duty and a pleasure to sustain the legislative Journal, as it has proved itself well worthy their confidence and helping hand.

☞ We learn that by the active investigations of several of our citizens, among them the officers of Engine Co. No. 8, it has been pretty well ascertained who the person is that cut the hose of Engine Co. No. 5 at the fire at Woodard's steam mill. The name is John Riley, a provincial, and he has suddenly left the city to avoid an arrest by the officers of the law, who were determined to make such example of him for so great an offence against the law and the security and well being of the city.

Much credit is due to the officers of Engine Co. No. 6, to the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department and to all those citizens who have aided in bringing the offender to light.

☞ At the last accounts from Rio Janeiro, the yellow fever continued to rage with much violence. No vessel can remain in the bay while the present state of things exists, more than five days without getting the fever on board. Some of the American ships have suffered most severely, and several of them could not muster hands sufficient to get out of the harbor. The American ship Victor, bound for New Orleans with only two men able to do duty. Many others have been, as it were, entirely deserted.

☞ The resignation of Major Donelson, editor of the Union, has been announced. His step is regarded by political circles as one of considerable significance. His valedictory is very short, and the reason assigned for the step is to promote the harmony and unity of the Democratic party. Major Donelson has been an uncompromising friend of the compromise measures, and has warmly urged the necessity of endorsing those measures in the Baltimore Convention. But it has been found impossible to induce the party on that platform, and the Washington Democratic organ will therefore stay a different time.

☞ A huge marine monster, having the form of a serpent, with spout holes like a whale, and swimming paws, has been captured in the Pacific Ocean by the whaleship Mesongahela of New Bedford. Its immense size rendered it impossible to get it on board, but its head and bones have been preserved.

☞ Hon. Daniel Webster has accepted the invitation of the city authorities of Boston, to meet, and address his fellow-citizens of Boston.

☞ A communication in the Washington papers from Lt. Maury, states the Asteroid discovered by Gasparis on the 17th of March last, was observed at the National Observatory, by Lieut Ferguson, with the 9 inch equatorial of the large Equatorial, on the 30th; and again on the 31st instant.

☞ A gentleman has been appointed at Rockland, Me., Collector of Customs, and a Chicago paper says that Gen. Cass, and a Chicago paper says that Gen. Cass, and a Chicago paper says that Gen. Cass
